Reflections

“What then shall we say to this?
If God is for us, who is against us?”

~Romans 8: 31

Dear People of the Northern Great Lakes Synod,

As I write this article, we are still in a flurry of executive orders and declarations that give rise to a host of emotions. While some are cheering campaign promises kept, others fear for those most impacted and question the constitutional integrity of actions and orders. My own heart feels heavy as funds have been paused for humanitarian aid. I know the work of Lutheran Social Services makes a compassionate difference in the world and frankly, US AID funds make America look good. (It was through US AID grants that the NGLS was able to help build Kisarawe Junior Theological Seminary in Tanzania.) As we consider our theme of Seed Sowers and planting seeds of faith, the seeds that are now being sown by these actions are unclear. Within that space of planting and growth is the tension between border security and a compassionate immigration system that works, between excessive spending and effective stewardship of federal resources, between legal processes and getting things done. What then shall we say to this?

There is much that I disagree with, and much that provokes concern. But my understanding of the example and call of Jesus to be his disciple brings me back to what I can do, what I should do, and what lies beyond my reach (although not beyond my grief and disquiet.)

I can call my congressional representatives to work to restore funds, and in the meantime, I can encourage congregations to gather in their Synod Assembly offering for World Hunger. I can support local and global efforts to address issues of poverty. I can participate with the efforts of our synod to make a difference with the people who are in our reach and continue to educate around international issues even as we pray for peaceful resolutions and just action.

And I can remember, and remind you and myself, that the God we proclaim is one who promises new life from death. The Savior we serve is one who bids us to “go and do likewise,” not seeking to condemn but inviting us into a deeper understanding of how it is that the least are the greatest. God is for us and working through us to be the presence of Christ. What that means for us in these days, we figure out together. I find that the words of ELW Hymn #705 speak to me with new resonance:

*God of grace, and God of glory
On your people pour your power.
Crown your ancient church's story.
Bring its bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
for the facing of this hour.*

*Lo! The hosts of evil round us scorn the Christ, assail his ways.
From the fears that long have bound us
free our hearts to faith and praise.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
for the living of these days.*

*Cure your children's warring madness;
Bend our pride to your control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
lest we miss your Kingdom's goal.*

*Save us from weak resignation
to the evils we deplore;
Let the gift of your salvation
be our glory evermore.*

...continued

Continued... Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, serving you whom we adore.

Grant us wisdom. Grant us courage.

In Christ, Bishop Katherine Finegan

A Prayer to Live With Grace

May we discover through pain and torment,
the strength to live with grace and humor.

May we discover through doubt and anguish,
the strength to live with dignity and holiness.

May we discover through suffering and fear,
The strength to move toward healing.

May it come to pass that we be restored to health and to vigor.

May life grant us wellness of body, spirit, and mind.

And if this cannot be so, may we find in this transformation and passage

Moments of meaning, opportunities for love and the deep and gracious calm that comes when we allow ourselves to move on.

~Rabbi Rami M. Shapiro

Good Friday Community Worship

Friends in Christ,

On behalf of Community Covenant Church, I welcome you to this special Good Friday Community Service. It is our honor to host this year. Thank you to the area clergy who will deliver the messages today as readers and preachers, and to the choirs, soloists, and musicians who bring God's word to us in song. Special thanks to Laurie Buyarski for serving as organist and to our Community Covenant volunteers for covering other duties as assigned.

The theme is The Cross and the Cries of Our Neighbors' Needs. Worshipers may attend any or all of the segments. There will be a brief interlude between segments. An elevator is available for those needing mobility assistance. Worshipers may enter through the parking lot doors and exit through either the parking lot doors or the doors facing the street. Free will offerings may be placed in the offering plates. They will be used to support the Abundant Life Homeless Shelter in Menominee.

One new element to our service this year is the stripping of the altar. The stripping of the altar symbolizes the stripping away of all comforts and earthly supports for Jesus as he prepares for his day of crucifixion. This will take place slowly throughout the day, culminating in our singing, "Were You There?" at the end of the three hours. When our time together is finished, the front of the church will be transformed from being a place of holy worship amid beauty, to what now appears quite like a tomb. In that transformation, we see a great truth: the joy we typically experience in our worship came at the cost of the death of the One we worship. After our song is finished, we will observe a moment of silence. You'll then hear three bell tolls symbolizing the three days Jesus was in the tomb and breaking the silence. Following the bells, you are dismissed.

World Hunger Drive

Cast out your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will get it back. Divide your means seven ways, or even eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen on earth.
 -Ecclesiastes 11:1-2

Here at Zion we will be “casting our bread” during the season of Lent to raise money once again for ELCA World Hunger. The money we collect will be presented at the Northern Great Lakes Synod Assembly in May. Here’s all you need to do: Give what you can, as often as you’d like. Use any envelope. Be sure to include your name so we can record the gift on your statement. Drop it in the offering plate any Sunday until May 4th.

You’ll be able to watch how much we raise by the display in the back of the Sanctuary. Look for the “river” across the windows of the Cry Room. For every $10 donated to ELCA World Hunger during this time, we’ll “cast a loaf of bread” upon that river. So far, we have raised over $6,000! Thank you so much for Going Where Jesus Leads.

The Stewardship and Generosity Corner

The Seven Marks of Discipleship

#Pray

#Worship

#Study

#Invite

#Encourage

#Give

#Serve

The goal of Zion's Stewardship and Generosity Committee is to help God's people grow in their relationship with Jesus through the use of the time, talents, and finances God has entrusted to them.

This month's article will focus on Pray, one of the Seven Marks of Discipleship. Here is Zion's Vision Statement for Pray. "We envision a congregation that prays regularly and embraces prayer as being central to all that it does and habitually listens for God's call and guidance not only in all areas of congregational ministry, but in our personal lives as well. "

At one point in time our congregation started intercessory prayer at worship by taking a deep breath to quiet ourselves and focus. I liked that practice and have continued to use it when praying. It helps me to concentrate on what I want to pray for and to whom I want to pray. That might be a very strange thing to say – "and to whom I want to pray," but for me the Triune God and my understanding of it, evolved after reading "The Shack." The book, while a work of fiction, helped me to come to terms with the "three persons in one."

Do you like me find yourself praying to one or the other being of the Triune God; the Father, the Son, or the Holy Spirit depending on the focus of your prayer? I pray to God the Father when I'm thanking him for the creation that surrounds me and all that God has made and gifted me. I pray to Jesus Christ when I want help with my daily life. Who better to pray to than the person who lived as a human being just as I have, and I pray to the Holy Spirit when I need inspiration and guidance to do what Jesus Christ puts on my heart to do. I may have already told you, but I pray to the Holy Spirit every month to guide and enlighten me when writing this article.

Continued...

My absolute favorite place to pray is while I walk out in nature. There is so much to be thankful for. Right now, it's the trees budding, birds singing, sun shining, warmer weather, and the list could go on and on. I also pray throughout the day over a variety of things that come to mind. As Christians we can pray anywhere and at any time, and thankfully our prayer will be heard. The plug on our phone line to Heaven doesn't get unplugged at 11pm or even midnight. What a comfort that is when we struggle with our lives. We can always turn to prayer.

I found a great acronym for PRAY. Some of you may already know it, but it is new to me, and I want to share it.

Praise: Prayer should begin with genuine praise towards God. Prayers of praise involve thanking God for who God is, and what God has done for us. As we spend time praising God, we should reflect on the Holy One's character and the good gifts the Spirit has given us.

Repent: Repentance is the act of turning away from sin and turning towards God. It is changing our way of thinking. As humans we have a sinful, fallen nature. We can't seem to help ourselves, and because of that we should continually have an attitude of repentance.

Ask: God wants us to humbly and persistently ask for what we need and want, not only for ourselves but also for others. Asking means we admit we can't do these things on our own. We need God's help and guidance.

Yield: Yield means to sit quietly before God and listen. As we listen to what God tells us; we should resolve to be obedient to whatever next step God may be calling us to take.

Continued...

I want to take a moment to tell you about two initiatives our committee is beginning. Starting April 6th, multi-colored strips of paper will be in the pews at worship. You are invited to write your prayers on one and place it in the basket as you exit the sanctuary. Those prayer requests will create a chain which will be hung from the lobby ceiling. As we walk under the chain, we ask that you pray for the requests already made. Each week new prayer requests will be added when received.

I personally know how important it is that someone in their hour of need is praying for you. It is very uplifting. It creates courage and hope when it is desperately needed. Over the years I've heard congregation members say, "I wish I could help, but I'm just too old, or I'm not physically able to help, but I wish I could." Here is an opportunity for you to be involved in a very special group called "Prayer Partners." This group will be a vital link to the congregation as they pray for others who have requested prayer. The details of this group are still in development, but if you are being called by God to participate, please contact Marissa at Zion's office and let her know you'd like more information about Prayer Partners. Someone will call you back as soon as possible.

In God's grace and love,
Karen Sylvester
